	02.02.2007 On being mentioned, the matter is taken-up for hearing. Shri Awadh Tripathi, counsel for the petitioner. Shri AS Kachhawaha, Government Advocate for the respondent No.1 / State. None for other respondents. Heard. Respondents No.2 & 3 issued auction notice for sale of plots on lease and also prescribed terms and conditions for the same. Petitioner took part in that auction proceedings and gave the highest bid for getting a plot on lease by this auction sale. Petitioner also deposited partial amount towards it, but, her bid was not accepted by respondents No.2 & 3. Feeling aggrieved this petition. According to terms and conditions, respondent No.2 & 3 have kept reserved the right to accept the bid. Only taking part in the auction proceeding and giving the highest bid for purchase of a plot, which was subsequently not accepted by respondents No.2 & 3 do not confer any legal right under Article 226 of the Constitution of India to question non-acceptance of bid by respondents No.2 & 3. In the result, the petition is liable to be dismissed summarily and is accordingly dismissed. Consequently, M.(W.)P.No.190/2007 stands disposed of,
